

Exhibitor's Right of Appeal

Any and all Exhibitors have a right to bring any of their concerns to the attention of the Delaware State Fair through the Chairperson of the Fair's Livestock Committee or Competitive Exhibits Committee whichever is applicable and ultimately Fair management without fear of reprisal or recrimination.

Exhibitors should use the following guidelines in expressing these concerns.

1. Please submit in written form a brief summary of your observations. Provide as much detail as possible, and present the summary based on the facts. Hand-written summaries are welcomed, but must bear the writer's signature. Anonymously written summaries will not be accepted. Submission should be turned in at the Administrative Office where it will then be forwarded to the appropriate individual (Livestock Committee Chairperson or Competitive Exhibits Committee Chairperson and General Manager).
2. An Exhibitor's Right of Appeal form must be used and filed prior to end of current Fair. Appeal forms are available at the Delaware State Fair's Administration Office. Please complete all required information fields including your name, address, cell phone, e-mail address, etc. along with the best means to contact you with the Fair's response.
3. It is critical that any concerns be properly communicated in the fashion set forth above in a timely fashion. It is imperative that all concerns be brought to the attention of management while the Fair is underway so that all parties who might need to be involved in a discussion are on site. A timely response will be made by management and communicated to the person who filed the appeal.
4. Any opinion or decision rendered by the Chairperson of the Livestock Committee or Competitive Exhibits Committee may be immediately appealed to the Fair's General Manager, who in his or her discretion may consult with any additional parties needed to render a decision. The General Manager's decision on an appeal shall be considered final.